

Analysis and Action Taken Report

General analysis of Feedback regarding curriculum up gradation received from different stakeholders Analysis of Feedback received from students.

Analysis of Feedback from Students

- 1) Free elective should be offered and computer subject should be introduced for Arts programme.
- 2) Curriculum should be revised to improve performance in personal interview, Group Discussion and Communication Skills.
- 3) Industrial tours to reputed companies should be a part of practical.

Analysis of Feedback from Employer

- 1) Modern and skill oriented courses should be designed.
- 2) Employability should be the focus of designing syllabus.

Analysis of Feedback received from Alumina

- 1) Enterpneneurship awareness should be prompted.
- 2) Collaboration with other colleges, Universities and industries should be linked.

Analysis of Feedback received from teachers

- 1) Workshops should be organized on curriculum restructuring.
- 2) Industrial visits and industrial training should be promoted.
- 3) Professor Exchange programme should be started.

The following senior staff members of the institute have representation in the Board of Studies and other University level committees for curriculum development. The feedback analysis is communicated to the authorities for designing and development of the curriculum.

Name of the Staff

1)Dr.C.R.Palkar

2)Dr.A.H.Kamble

3)Dr.V.R.Tidke

4)Dr.M.A.Bansod

5)Dr.S.S.Tamgadge

6)Dr.K.O.Mandgaonkar

Name of Department

Sanskrit Department

Marathi Department

Computer Department

Home Economics and

Rural Handicraft Department

Computer course for preparation
in Civil Services

Library and Office Automation